- [0208002] Adams, Ansel.. ORIGINAL SIGNED PORTRAIT OF ANSEL ADAMS.. Redlands, Cal., 1968., Original black & white portrait of the great American photographer with original presentation signature by Adams, dated 11-11-68 (could be 1960, but most likely 68) taken by Redlands, California, photographer, Jim Sloan, to whom the portrait is inscribed with narrow black felt pen. Image size 7 1/8" x 9 1/16". This photo was professionally affixed by the Perma Plaque Company on wooden board & lightly coated with an impervious solution. The Perma Plaque Company has long been famous for preserving valuable objects. Since the taking of the photo (and presumably the placing of it on the board soon thereafter) and during the several years your seller has owned the photo, there is no visible evidence of any discoloration or degradation to the photo. Board size: 9 7/8" x 11 7/8". Gold trim. I am aware of no other prints of this portrait. Possibly a unique item & a great Adams centennial collectible. $900.00

[5007038] Blennerhassett, Lady. (Madame de Stael). MADAME DE STAEL Her Friends, and Her Influence in Politics and Literature. Chapman & Hall, London, 1889, First Thus. 1st edition in English, translated & slightly abridged by J. E. Gordon Cumming from "Frau von Stael - Ihre Freunds und ehre Bedeutung in Pokitik und Literature". Three volumes in half red leather & pink marbled boards. Matching marbled endpapers. 464pp, 546pp, 609pp. Frontispiece: Madame de Stael. Gilt trimmed along the leather sections. Spines elegantly gilded with decorative devices & title/author. Gilt letter "N" on lower spines, and gilt bees on top & bottom of spines. The latter are, of course, emblematic of the empires of Napoleon I & Napoleon III. De Stael, born Anne Louise Germaine Necker. Historical information has her banned from France by Napoleon I. Her writings & novels further infuriated him. This set in better than very good condition, the exception being that on the final index page of volume III, there is a very short edge tear (1/2") closed & collateral creases. Parallel creases to following blank page before endpaper. They have been somewhat pressed out. Some, but not all of the upper fore corners have just enough wear so that the boards underneath are exposed. A most attractive set with appropriate gilding to the subject. Very scarce.

[0103016] BRITISH COLUMBIA MINING MAP). Bailey, Frank (Compiled and Drawn by).. MINING MAP/ OF PART OF/ SIMILKAMEEN RIVER/ OSOYOOS MINING DIVISION/ YALE DISTRICT/ BRITISH COLUMBIA. 1900.. Privately published. (dated by Bailey on March 17)., First Edition. 22 1/4" x 27 3/4". Scale:

3000 feet to 1 inch. "Entered According To Act Of The Parliament Of Canada In The Year 1900 By Frank Bailey At The Department (sic) Of Agriculture". A rare map showing area from Similkameen City to Keremeos along the river & the "location line" of the Columbia and Western Railroad. Bailey later (ca 1914) compiled & published a book on the Yale Mining District. Condition: stains, almost entirely outside printed border, along left and bottom margins; some small tears & chips; upper left corner of margin bumped. Else fine. The map shows hundreds of gold & other mining claims as prospected and registered. They are grouped around such locations as Camp Hedley, Stray Horse Camp, Black's Camp, and Camp Yuniman. Famous mines include the Nichol Plate and Rollo at Hedley & the Elkhorn at Olalla. Indian Reserves are noted & certified as to their accuracy by Richard H. Parkinson, P.L.S., Fairview, B.C. The map locates hotels, "wagon roads", trails, graveyards, creeks, ranches, proposed smelter sites, etc. The compass point is surrounded by a large, but somewhat crude sketch of Britannia and Columbia seated beside each other with their respective national flags and shields. A description of this map by a former owner says that a copy was received by the British Museum for copyright purposes, but is not listed in their catalogue. An inset KEY MAP shows the region from just north of Kamloops, south past the international border into Washington, and from the Coldwater River on the west to the Arrow Lakes & beyond on the east. This map, for the romantic armchair historian or serious academic researcher, invites attention to the names of the mines alone. You've got the Yorkshire, the Yorkshire Pig, and the Yorkshire Lass. You've got the Black Jack and the Prince of Wales. You've got, next to each other, the Golden Rule and the Bad Boy, the Gold Bug and the Rob Roy. Get my drift? The Hedley mines, in particular, steadily produced precious metal for 50 years. The remains of Hedley's stamp mill are barely visible yet from the highway that follows the river. This is a nice opportunity to own an exceptional piece of B.C. history. cf Edwards & Lort #152. Digital images available upon request.

Chisholm, Montreal, 1880, First Thus. 1st edition thus, greatly expanded from editions in the early 1870s that did not include the far West. 8vo royal blue cloth with heavy gilt decorations & titles. xii, 556pp. Illustrated with engravings. Contents. Classified Index to Advertisers. Index of Cities, Towns and Places of Interest. Eight tipped in folding maps ("Saratoga", "Prospect Park, Niagara Falls", "Niagara Falls", "Caledonia Springs", "Lower St. Lawrence, and Saguenay River", "White Mountains", "City of Boston", Excursion Routes"). Also, a spectacularly long folding map in front pocket, extending to 11' 7", of the Niagara & St. Lawrence Rivers (it's called "Panorama of St. Lawrence River"). Advertisements before & after main text for several historical railroads & hotels of the NE and the West (includes the colorfully named Oregon railroad & steamship companies). One rather long tipped in fold out map has on its verso a great pictorial ad of the Chicago ,Rock Island, & Pacific RR Palace Dining car cross section showing travelers dining in luxury & leisure. The section on Chicago has many engravings, showing the great fire & the rebuilding of the city since. Includes Union Stockyards. The so-called "Western Appendix" to the book is 177pp. long, & begins with Chicago & goes to Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, Leavenworth, San Francisco, Sacramento, Oregon, & Victoria. Includes table of stations of the Union Pacific & Central Pacific railways. Most of the book is, of course, on the Niagara Falls & St. Lawrence area, with information on Toronto. The corner covers are bent at the tips & soft. Just a bit of fraying to the spine. Leading & trailing edges of the long map are have short tears & a touch of chipping. The gilt is bold & beautiful, showing small shields of Canada & the U.S., & rising up between them a famous high cantilevered rock over Yosemite Valley with two people standing near the edge of it -- all in gilt! Gilt decorative devices of the U.S. eagle & the Canadian beaver. Front cover is bordered in gilt. The text pages (except for indexes & ads) are decoratively bordered in red. This item is one of the more interesting books I have had the privilege to offer for sale. Earlier editions are scarce. This greatly expanded edition is rare. I find records of possibly three copies of a later printing (1881) of this edition offered for sale in the last 65 years, & several copies of the 1870s editions, but no record of the 1st printing of this expanded edition. Not included in the Western bibs I have.

well-known Cincinnati book dealer at the time of what has come to be known as "the close of the frontier" in William Jackson Turner's essay. This publisher not to be confused with the famous Arthur H. Clark Co.. Arranged by states & subjects (War of 1812, Mexican War, Rebellion, Confederate Publications, Biography, British American, Mexico, Arctic, Central America, Slavery & the Negro, Religious Communities, Poetry, Indians & Archaeology, Indian Languages, etc., etc... Contents include almost all of the midwestern states & territories, & some eastern & New England states. (but, for instance while including Texas & Kansas, does not have Indian Territory). Read the prices of now exceedingly rare books & weep, but remember that you'd be dead by now if you were buying books then. Lewis & Clark Journals, McKinney - Hall 3 vols with portfolio, Emory Mexican Boundary Report, Ives: Report on the Colo. River, Wilkes 5 vols Narrative of the United States Exploring Expedition, they're all there and cheaper than a parking ticket. Certainly not an exhaustive catalogue by any means, but chock full of great books with useful bibliographical material as many entries have a paragraph explanation. Hinges broken; some pages with top edge tear up to 1". Rare.

[0508021] Cleaveland, Agnes Morley. NO LIFE FOR A LADY. H-M, Boston, (1941), First Thus. Signed by Author. Life in America edition. Cloth. 356pp. Illustrated by Edward Borein. Five-line inscription by Cleaveland to friend Esther Stevens Barney. Laid in double page A.L.S. from Cleaveland to Barney on Cleaveland's custom printed stationery from her home in Datil, New Mexico, May 3, 1951, with accompanying custom printed envelope postmarked May 2, Datil. Cleaveland apologizes for not being a better hostess when Barney visited (two other surprise visitors had shown up & taken up room). Cleaveland also looks "eagerly forward" to the receiving of a block print Barney is sending her. Laid in newspaper clipping tells of Cleaveland's return to New Mexico after having lived in California. This edition most uncommon, even if not the first or regular Houghton-Mifflin edition. Fine in slightly chipped dj. Herd 483, 6-guns 436, 44 & 44 #2, Reese 20, Dykes Kid 298, Dobie p99.

[0611029] Cleaveland, Bess Bruce. PIONEER LIFE PANEL POSTERS. Ideal School Supply Co., Chicago, 1935, First Edition. Unusual ephemera. Four large (12" x 36" each) stiff & heavy paper panels with color paper appliqué. Each panel is folded. Included is a small sheet, "Directions for making". A larger (2/3 page) sheet, "Pioneer Life" also laid in. Designed for classroom use, these posters, done by illustrator Cleaveland, were made with a series of color cut-out pieces to be glued, with surprisingly attractive effect, on outlined figures on the poster. Even the sky of each poster is applied in large & small pieces. Remarkably conceived, they represent four Western themes. "Wagon Trains". "Placer Mining". "Starting the Home". "Western Town". Being carefully executed, these would make interesting conversation pieces in your den between your original & Remington Russell. In original pictorial folio envelope (flap creased/wrinkled). Ink stamp of The Clarke & Stuart, Ltd., Commercial Stationers and Printers, Vancouver, B.C.. Vg. Very scarce.

[OK 9303028] Collins, Hubert E.. WARPATH AND CATTLE TRAIL.. NY, 1928., First Edition. Signed by Author. Cloth. 296pp. Illust. Foreword/Hamlin Garland. Presentation copy signed & dated on preliminary blank page by Collins Nov. 26, 1928, to Will Marriott. In the same hand at bottom of the same page is written, "By Father 1928". One of the fine, classic books on early Oklahoma cattle ranching, at the Red Fork Ranch near Dover. Much on Indians. Some outlaw material. One doesn't hear much about this book, but it should be considered a high spot in the ranching history of Oklahoma. The author & his brother lived in the country during its formative days & spent four years researching their memories, consulting with the Okla Hist Soc & historian J. B. Thoburn. Sarah Darlington Covington, daughter of Cheyenne & Arapahoe Indian Agent, Brinton Darlington, was related to Collins. Collins' account of enduring a fierce prairie storm while tending a cattle herd is spectacular. Vg copy with a bit of dark spotting on the front cover. [0309034] Colorado. Vickers, C. L. (Ed.). HISTORY OF THE ARKANSAS VALLEY OF COLORADO Illustrated. O. L. Baskin, Chicago, 1881, First Edition. Hard Cover. 1st edition. Three-quarter leather bound with elaborate gilt-stamped pebbled cloth boards. 889pp. Frontispiece: "Grand Canyon of the Arkansas". Illustrated with 105 engraved portraits & 52 wonderful engraved andscape, town, & architecturally related views. An immense amount of not only biographical information on leaders of Colorado associated with the Arkansas River valley, but on the sometimes hair-raising history of the following counties: Lake, El Paso, Chaffee, Fremont, Custer, Pueblo, Bent. Also sections on "History of Colorado", "Railroads", "Ten Mile Region", "Postscript" (Ute Rebellion). This copy has two portraits signed in pencil, Elton T. Beckwith (leading stockman of Custer Co.) & Peter Becker (businessman & former El Paso sheriff). There is also a lock of hair between a couple of pages. This copy rebacked with leather under original gilt-stamped spine, which is slightly flaked near the bottom. Light to moderate wear to the covers. New floral endpapers similar to original ones in poor condition. Library stamp on verso of title page, with some "bleeding" through showing part of the stamp in reverse on the title page, but not affecting any text. All edges gilt, with quite mild library stamp on bottom edge. A near fine copy. Rare. Howes A314, 6-guns 2272 ("contains chapters on the vigilantes & outlaws of Colorado"), Herd 527 & 2408.

[0505056] Drake, Charles D.. A. L. S. (autograph letter signed). N.p. , St. Louis, 2/11/1867, Original handwritten letter in ink, front & back, on approx. 7 7/8" x 9 7/8" plain stationary. Addressed to Mr. H. Crittenden of Great Barrington, Mass., C. D. Drake is advising the former that he (Drake) is reimbursing the latter for the advance of $100 two years earlier to help finance the publication of Drake's speeches. Appleton & Co. of Cincinnati published them, but of the 2,000 copies to be printed, only 200 had sold, "and I have no reason to hope that the money so kindly advanced by those thirteen gentlemen will ever be repaid from the sales." Drake writes that he is under no "legal obligation to refund"... "yet I feel very uncomfortable in regard to the matter, and follow the dictates of my feelings in reimbursing, ..., out of my own pocket, the amount..." Drake, the writer of the letter, was a well known Republican Senator from Missouri, 1867 - 1870. He was a leading advocate of Radical Reconstruction after the Civil War, & in early 1865 was a "guiding light" in Missouri's passage, at a new Constitutional Convention, of an emancipation ordinance to replace the one of 1863. At the same convention, a new constitution ("Drake's Constitution") was approved with harsh measures toward the vanquished in Missouri. It was also dubbed "the Draconian Constitution" in criticism of Drake. Earlier, in 1863, Pres. Lincoln had telegraphed Drake & The Hon. H. T. Blow, saying, "It is very painful to me that you in Missouri cannot or will not settle your factional quarrel among yourselves. I have been tormented with it beyond endurance for months by both sides." Quite noteworthy is the fact that Drake, in May of 1847, was the attorney for plaintiffs Dred Scott & Harriet Scott against Irene Emerson as the former tried to secure their freedom. Early press-printed Drake documents & speeches command somewhat hefty prices. I find no original handwritten items by Drake available in the internet marketplace. While the topic of this letter is personal rather than policy, it is nice piece of ephemera from a significant figure in Missouri & national politics. The letter is nearly split in half at the mid, horizontal fold. There is a 2" split on a vertical fold. Both have been carefully closed with a minimum of thin, very transparent, archival material. Very beautiful handwriting & completely legible.

Gilt-stamped cloth. 274pp. Charmingly illustrated with pen & ink drawings by Ellison. Index. The Santa Fe New Mexican aptly described this book as "Easy reading, entertaining, the way the cowboy lived, worked, etc... this is real stuff. No punches pulled." This copy with full page presentation inscription on the ffep, including three black felt ink drawings by Ellison. Laid in is a one page A.L.S. (hand-written & signed letter) from Ellison with a small sketch at the bottom. The mailing envelope it came in has a horse drawn by Ellison in bold brown color (wide felt pen) running from right to left across the front of the envelope, & from top to bottom, with the receiver's address (same as book inscription) in the middle of the horse. Ellison's return address is accompanied by a drawing of his personal vignette in black ink, which matches one of the drawings on the ffep. The author's writing style in both the book & the letter is reminiscent of the way Charlie Russell wrote. This, a very special copy to a friend of Ellison. Fine in good+ dj with a couple of closed tears on the back panel & some wear at the extremities. Former owner applied a band of reinforcing tape around the top of the backstrip; shows 1" on each panel. A choice collector's copy in spite of being a second printing.

Wash DC, February 9, 1848., House Ex. Doc. No. 41. 30th Congress, 1st Session. AND James William Abert, REPORT OF LIEUT. J. W. ABERT, OF HIS EXAMINATION OF NEW MEXICO IN THE YEARS 1846-'47. Bound in recent cloth (ca 1950?), moderately soiled, with early or original label. 614pp. All 64 plates present + the 3 single page sketches & 3 folding maps (browning at folds, splitting at many folds, some chips) in the rear. This copy includes the huge folding map called for by Wagner-Camp-Becker only in the Senate edition, (but noted by Howes in some copies) "Military Reconnaissance of the Arkansas Rio del Norte and Rio Gila." Th e second map, "Sketch of part of the march & wagon road of Lt. Colonel Cooke." appears to be complete, but has smaller dimensions than WCB describes. The large Emory map (76 x 165 cm) is in predictably fragile condition at the folds, with many of them split. However, to quote Carl Wheat (Trans-Mississippi, Vol. III, p.6), "The map of Lieutenant Emory (including the map of Abert and Peck and the map of Cooke) is a document of towering significance in the cartographic history of the West". "epoch making" (p. 7). A tight copy with new endpapers. Foxing throughout. Old waterstains to the upper margins, not affecting the images of the plates. A rarity of American military history & exploration. Graff 1249, Cowan p195, Howes E145, W-C 148:5, SFT 188.

THE RESERVATION BLACKFEET, 1882 - 1945 A Photographic History of Cultural Survival. Univ. of Wash., Seattle, 1984, 1st edition. 4to cloth with silver Indian pictorial line details/drawings. 210pp. Illustrated profusely with vintage b/w photos. Index. A long, several line inscription by Farr is written to May Dull Vallance, who provided several photos. Vallance, in turn, wrote a presentation to another person. Vallance also wrote some rather extensive & interesting annotations below several photos. This book & the exhibit from which it was drawn was the result of the author's belief that late 19th Century & 20th Century Blackfeet culture & memory of cultural change was being lost. The extensive collection of photos, snapshots, etc., and the extensive text provided by Farr, go a long ways in restoring that memory. A tremendous book & excellent association copy. Fine in dj.

[OK MOL003] Ferber, Edna. CIMARRON. Aeonian, N.p., N.d., First Thus. A unique copy, in the true sense of the word. Small 8vo. gilt-stamped cloth. 388pp. Unpublished, only one copy bound & printed. A little printery called Aeonian (stated only on the binding) was to print this edition using Grosset & Dunlap plates. This edition was to be published by another small press in Oklahoma at the time of the centennial (1989) of the first run into Oklahoma, but the gilt stamping on the front cover was not as nice as the publisher wanted & the edition died in its infancy. The stamping is actually quite strong, but some of the underlying cloth shows through in little pinpricks or tiny gaps in the gilt. The stamp is of a prairie schooner over the outline of the State of Oklahoma. Above it are the words: "1889 1989". Under it are the words: "Centennial Edition". With this copy comes the 5/8" thick, 1 7/16" x 2 1/8" original metal stamp, in a little custom nylon pouch with black flocked faux velvet finish. Your bookseller received this original printing information directly from the publisher. Fine copy. No dust jacket was printed.

MIDNIGHT AND NOONDAY or DARK DEEDS UNRAVELED giving twenty years experience on the frontier; also the murder of Pat Hennessey, and the hanging of Tom Smith, at Ryland's Ford, and facts concerning the TALBERT RAID, etc.. Privately printed, Caldwell, 1890., First Edition. Hard Cover. 1st issue. Printed paper over boards. 405pp. Illustrated with one drawing opposite p. 273. Lacking the frontispiece portrait of Freeman & the Medicine Lodge plate opposite p. 321. Old pencil signature of John Solf on the front paste down, & far later (11-14-66) ink signature of Ralph Solf on the same. One of the rarest & most desirable of all outlaw & cattle books & a cornerstone of any serious library on Indian Territory, Kansas, & early Oklahoma. This copy is waterstained (see below) but is rebacked under original cloth spine & in excellent reading condition. Printing of title on front board is worn, typical of most surviving copies, but main title is mostly readable. Hinges professionally redone. Paper worn from corners of boards, but corners were professionally stabilized. The waterstain: on lower right corner of boards & lower foreedge of text block; lower part of text stained, but mostly on lower & lower side margins. This copy may not look good, and few 1st issue copies do, but it is a very flexible, sturdy, & easily usable/readable copy. A page edge tear or two have been archivally closed. This is the 1st issue, not to be confused with the 2nd issue of 1890 or the 1892 edition. Exceedingly rare. 6-guns 763 (Adams mistakenly confuses the issue points), Herd 843 (Adams correct as far as he goes, but is incomplete), 150 #56 (Adams incomplete again), Howes F353, Graff 1411, Dobie p121, Dykes Kid 21.

[0408052] Gillmore, Parker ("Ubique"). A HUNTER'S ADVENTURES in the Great West. Hurst & Blackett, London, 1871, 1st edition. Full gilt-stamped 8vo sheep. 336pp. Frontispiece engraving "Bruin's Home" & small title-page engraving "Bull Moose Lake". Marbled endpapers. a.e.g. Raised bands with gilt-stamped labels. Deep gilt imprint on front cover of coat of arms of "Protestant Board of School Commissioners Montreal P.Q." Back cover has ungilt blindstamp of same. An account of hunting & fishing in Montana Territory apparently just before the discovery of precious metals there, & several years before Custer & the Little Big Horn. There is a little information on the Crow Indians. Includes reminiscences of other places. In the first chapter, the author speaks depreciatingly of miners & the failure of a Christian nation to live up to Christian principles in their treatment of Indians. Gillmore also categorizes North American Indians into three groups: Horse-Indians, Timber-Indians, & Fish-Indians, & rates their qualities from "handsome, honorable, & brave" (Timber-Indians) to "unprepossessing, debased, & cowardly" (Fish-Indians). He foresees the mineral wealth of the territory & the advent of miners, "as a rule the most dissipated, cruel, and reckless people upon the face of the earth", to sign the "death-warrant" of the Indian. A rare book, & not listed in Howes, although a later book by Gillmore is listed. Edgewear to covers & some darkening to same. Actually, a very good, tight copy with no library markings except for the cover imprints. Rader 1593, Smith 3582.

Arthur H. Clark, Cleveland, 1922., First Edition. Hard Cover. Two volumes in red cloth gilt-stamped on spines. 346pp + 306pp. Illust. t.e.g. Fldg maps. One of the most desirable sets from the early period of Arthur H. Clark Company publishing. "This classic Clark title recounts the federal government's attempt to open a road north from the Oregon Trail through the Powder River country, hunting grounds for the Sioux, in the late 1860s." (Clark & Brunet). A "married" set (single volumes brought together). Condition: Covers: Spine of volume 1 is a little brighter than vol. 2 & the latter has a narrow band of a white substance (polish?) worked into the cloth along the spine next to the rear joint. It's visible when the books are standing up spines out, but doesn't obscure the red cloth. Vol. 1 has a small dimple on the upper spine. Interiors: Vol. 1 has signature separations between four gatherings due to a slight loosening of the binding thread, but the latter is not broken & the facing signatures are still securely tied. Twenty pages of the same volume have some marginal lines & notes in ink, & several illustrations have small ink notations under them. Vol. 2 has its folding map in photo facsimile with the map color almost exactly like the original This is a reading set & is so priced. Clark 115, Howes H382.

[5008039] Illustrated London). ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS, THE. ILN, London, 1892, First Edition. Original edition. Three months of the Illustrated London News, Oct 1, 1892, through the end of the year. Folio. Poor condition with all pages stained. However, even with the staining of the prints and pages, this large folio volume should not be relegated to oblivion. There is much attention given in words & illustrations to the life and passing of England's great poet, Alfred, Lord Tennyson, who had just died. There is the complete, serialized novel by Thomas Hardy, "The Pursuit of the Well-Beloved", with the interesting masthead for each of the twelve segments. Advertising and art work are classic Victorian and endlessly fascinating. Be warned now, condition: The first 2/3 of the volume are heavily stained on the upper portion of the leaves, and the last 1/3 is heavily and dreadfully stained also on the bottom half. This is not a tea or coffee stain, but of a substance somewhat oily in texture that is still just a touch noticeable. The binding is poor & the first blank page is torn. A couple of other pages have a long tear, & a few pages were stuck together in small (dime to half-dollar) sized spots. They have been carefully separated with some minor print loss and some short tears. The volume is what it is, and someone will enjoy it, or break it & pick the best of the plates for framing.

[5008040] Illustrated London). ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS, THE. ILN, London, 1891, First Edition. Original edition, July, 4, 1891 - December 26, 1891. Folio. Approx. 887pp. printed on quality paper. Wonderfully illustrated with full & partial page engravings & ads. Complete run, bound, for six months of this illustrated newspaper. Includes double page tinted portraits of Prince Albert of Anhalt - Dessau, & Princess Louise of Schleswig - Holstein. Includes a great looking double page engraving, "North American Indians Running Cattle Into A Ranch" (R. Caton Woodville). There is another double page engraving, "Canadian North - West Farming: Reaping The Harvest". Double page engraving of "The Late Hon. James Russell Lowell". Includes a story by Bret Harte, "Their Uncle From California." News articles too numerous to mention. Ads small & large too numerous to mention. A classic run of a fine illustrated newspaper in the Victorian era. Condition: disbound, but marbled boards present. Two preliminary blank pages chipped & loose. Many pages have light stain in lower, gutter corner, with the most severe stain at that location the last few pages. There may be an occasional tear. One of the best examples of the art of engraving in the 19th Century.

[5008041] Illustrated London). ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS, THE. ILN, London, 1856, First Edition. Original edition, Jan 5, 1856 (beginning at page 3) - June 28, 1856. Folio in cloth & printed on quality paper. Disbound, but covers & spine present (piece missing from front fabric; tear). 720pp. A tremendous volume almost all about the Crimean War, including the peace celebrations. Gorgeous military (cavalry, naval, etc.) & other engravings throughout, many double page. A handful are in sepia tone. Four portraits are strongly tinted, with particular note on a very striking portrait, "The Standard Bearer" (J.Gilbert). We mention just a handful of noteworthy engravings: "The Peers Front - New Palace of Westminster", two full page engravings on the "Burning of Covent Garden", a terrific double page: "Peace on Earth Good Will Towards Men -- Cry Havoc and Let Slip The Dogs Of War", "New Uniforms of the British Cavalry", "New Uniform of the Coldstream Guards", numerous striking fireworks engravings celebrating the peace, also "The Peace Rejoicing -- Ringing The Bells", "The New State Ball-Room At Buckingham Palace", one-third page engravings of "The Nebraska and Kansas Territory". AND, a 32 page Supplement, "The Grand Naval Review", which includes a full page map, "Plan of Spithead Showing the Proposed Evolutions of the Review of the Fleet by Her Majesty, on Wednesday the 23rd of April, 1856". The pages almost throughout in vg to fine condition, with perhaps an occasional tear, smudge. One of the best examples of the art of engraving in the 19th Century.

Modern cloth with modern printed label on spines & appropriate new endpapers. 246pp + 254pp. Irving "was the nephew of Washington Irving, whom he accompanied on a visit to the Indian country in 1832." (Wagner - Camp - Becker). Irving, in the Introduction, gives one-paragraph descriptions of various tribes he encountered: Konzas, Otoes, Osages, Pawnees, Sioux, Omahaws, & the "Nemahaw" river nearby. Regarding this book & the journey it was based upon, he says of himself, "he was present at the treaties concluded with the hostile tribes. The present history he relates to recitals he then heard; to scenes he visited; and, in part, to individuals, both white and Indian, who came under his observation." This is an account of his experiences, but put in more or less fictional form. Foxed throughout. Last part of Vol II also with stained pages (doesn't affect readability). Vol I with very light pencil signature of F. Bolton above title. Vol. II with very old ink signature of Wm. K. Ratcliff above title & very old printed name stamp of Mary O. (or D.) S. Noskins. On the last leaf (blank) of Vol II is the upside down ink signature of "Mary O. R. Millz" (?) "Her Book". That leaf has a 2" x 3" piece torn out of the bottom from spine out. Very scarce item. [SHEL053] Jackson, William Henry. MAMMOTH PHOTOCHROME Echo Cliffs, Grand River Canyon, Garfield County, Colorado. Detroit Publishing Company, ca 1901, First Thus. We are pleased to offer a rare Detroit Publishing Company original chrome image created circa 1901 from an original William Henry Jackson mammoth glass plate photograph negative. There are many, many books dealing with Jackson, the most famous Western landscape photographer in American history, and perhaps most publicly known by his famous image, Mount of the Holy Cross. Aficionados know that Jackson took many other images other than western landscapes, but he is chiefly noted for these. There are only a handful of books that treat in detail the transfer of Jackson's images to the Detroit Photographic Company (later known as the Detroit Publishing Co.), and that firm's acquisition of the sole rights to use the Swiss photochrom process in North America in 1898. But, in brief, the purchase of Jackson's images and his own employment by the firm occurred at the time of the acquisition of that fine reproduction process. Thus, thousands of Jackson glass plate negatives were available to be reproduced with this complex lithographic process rendering his images in wonderful, glowing color - not garish, but beautifully hued. Smaller chrome images are not hard to find, but large images, such as this one, are now rare and seldom come on the market. The photochrom offered here is 17" x 21" the largest print format from the original mammoth plate Jackson photos, which were 20" x 24". The image offered for sale is "Echo Cliffs, Grand River Canyon, Garfield County, Colorado" (not to be confused with Jackson's Echo Canyon photos in Utah while with the Hayden led Geological Survey expeditions of the early 1870s). It has also been titled "2nd Tunnel, Grand River Canyon". The title is not printed on this image. Only the words, "Detroit Publishing Company" are printed with copyright. The Grand River was the name used until about 1921 when, within the State of Colorado, it was changed to the Colorado River. The original mammoth plate was likely exposed during or after 1881 when Jackson made many views for the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad. The photochrom is in what we believe is the original frame, but we have no provenance for that. The frame is damaged along one corner. Because there is a possibility that the buyer may wish to repair the corner of that frame, we have left it in that frame. The photochrom, itself, is in near fine condition, with just a little stain near the upper left corner. We have replaced an old backing with an acid-free backing. This photochrom is simply a superb piece of work. One analyst of the process and the finished product regards it as unsurpassed even here in the 21st Century. Special charges may apply for transfer to purchaser.

[SHEL024] Jans, Nick. THE GRIZZLY MAZE: Timothy Treadwell's Fatal Obsession With Alaskan Bears. New York, 2005: E P Dutton, First Edition. Signed by Author. 1st printing. Cloth & boards. 274pp. Illustrated with b/w photos. Signed by Jans. A carefully researched & balanced interpretation of how many people viewed & continue to view Timothy Treadwell, the man who loved bears & who, along with his friend Amie Huguenard, met his death by the same in the "Grizzly Maze" in Katmai National Park. The author gives the reader good information on Treadwell's background, as well as a probing examination of many aspects of Treadwell's life during the thirteen summers he spent among the brown bears of the Katmai coast of Alaska. An engaging account of the forensics involved in the double death & what might have led up to them is a significant part, but only a part of this well-written book. The author leads the reader, with serious personal reflection born of his own life lived in the close vicinity of bears, into serious reflection on the mystique of bears as humans consider them. Jans reports in honest fashion the variety of opinions, many exceedingly strong, regarding Treadwell's interaction with bears, & his death. Fine, as new in dj. Signed copies are uncommon in spite of this being a very recently published book. This is a very, very good book.

Gilt-stamped pictorial cloth. 468pp. Illustrated with vintage range photos & portraits. Signed presentation copy by Kelly to one Bruce Cameron & dated Christmas, 1913. One of most important & rarest books on Alberta's frontier cattle industry. A great amount of information on the earliest white settlements & ranchers, Mounted Police, etc. Some great stories & anecdotes are included as well as extensive empirical data. When I bought this copy it needed restoration & it is now a good, tight copy re-backed under 95% of original cloth spine; 2 worn cover corners rebuilt; the front free end paper with the presentation was torn vertically in half & has been professionally & archivally restored with tissue bonding (no tape); there are old brown tape marks (10 of 'em) on hinges & outside edges of the front free endpaper; the original pictorial paint on the silver dollar sized cover relief image of the cowboy is mostly flaked off; gilt on spine is dull; text is in very good condition with upper corner pressure bump mostly pressed out. Repaired now & with a few cosmetic flaws, now a desirable & regularly usable volume essential for a serious range cattle collection. Herd 1267, Howes K66, Reese 65, Whale 744.

KINSEY PHOTOGRAPHER A half century of negatives by Darius and Tabitha May Kinsey With contributions by son and daughter Darius, Jr., and Dorothea. Scrimshaw, S.F., 1975, 1st edition, ltd to 2,500 sets. Large 4to cloth in two volumes (bound in two different colors of cloth), with a different photo plate on each front cover. 157pp + 162pp. Stunningly illustrated with many, many Kinsey photographs of the Pacific Northwest. Many are full page. All are of the highest quality. There is some other illustrative material (Vol. Two has one brilliant color plate from the original tinted by Mrs. Kinsey). Volume One: "The Family Album & Other Early Work." Volume Two: "The Magnificent Years". As the introductory material says, the Kinseys "spent most of a lifetime in photography" in the logging areas of Washington State beginning about 1900. The photos published here were selected from 4,500 surviving glass plates & film. The set includes well-written essays and just enough descriptive text to allow the photos to command most of the attention, as they should. An "as new" set, and in mint condition in lovely marbled slipcase, and with the slightly soiled mailing box. Published without dust jackets. In spite of the somewhat large number of published copies of this ltd edition, it is a very scarce & desirable set, indeed.

[0211090] Klondike. KLONDIKE GOLD RUSH ORIGINAL PHOTOGRAPH. - BRIMSTON ROAD HOUSE.. ca 1898, Large 7" x 13 1/2" original print, a bromide emulsion. This road house was originally owned by George Brimston, who also had a claim close by. Yukon Places and Names by Coutts says, "Brimstone Gulch 63 Degrees 43' N 138 Degrees 41' W. flows into Sulphur Creek in the south Klondike district. This short creek was staked and named in late 1897 by George Brimston. The name was a play on his own and that of Sulphur Creek. By November 1898 he was working his claim and had built and was operating roadhouse at the mouth of this stream. He worked the stream for a number of years before moving to Dawson." One website authority has the hotel operating just in 1898. In 1902 Brimston ran for City Council of Dawson & lost. In 1924 his ten year old son drowned in the Klondike River. The photo shows the front of the roadhouse with an unhitched, loaded wagon near one end with two men standing beside it. Seated or standing around the front door of the house are six men & two women. Peering out of windows above are two men, one holding an open book. Large cloth sign above the front door & window clearly reads in smaller to larger lettering, "BRIMSTON ROAD HOUSE STORE LIQUORS WINES CIGARS J. BRANDMEIR PRO. (A cursory search pulls up no information on J. Brandmeir, the proprietor, from that period or region.). Two readable tall advertising pictorial broadsides or posters on the front of the building refer to McLennans Store in Dawson (street address given) where skirts & petticoats are for sale (drawing of woman in skirt from waist down). The other broadside says "37 miles to McLennans & oddly depicts a black man standing on a short tree stump looking down at a rooster. The photo was placed by a previous owner in a modern frame & mat, & was mounted on foam board. Undoubtedly the photo was previously rolled up, because along the bottom edge are seven vertical pressure ridges resulting in slight cracking (not tears) of the print. They are as short as 3/8" & as long as 1 1/4". Honestly, they detract very little from the appearance of the image, but obviously would be of concern to collectors of prints in fine, original condition only. This is a crisp, sharply focused, wonderful photo from one of the great gold rushes of North America. No photographer is named. I find no copies of the Brimston Road House in my small library of Klondike photo books, & the Dawson Museum has no photo of it. Undoubtedly rare & possibly unique.

Facsimile reprint of Vol. I, No. 1 of The Klondike News, San Francisco, Cal. and Dawson, N.W.T., April 1, 1898. The cover is a magnificent image of "Discoverer, Geo. W. Carmack" standing regally next to a tree & several nuggets of gold, all of which is overarched by a dogsled pulling "Klondike News" & giving the dollar output for 1898. Very nice masthead over a view of Dawson. One long tear in cover repaired; some wear/light chipping to edges. Paper is in very good condition. The original is rare; the reprint is very scarce.

Original printed folder, 4 1/2" x 6" which opens to a cord-tied, printed & folded leaf. The cover continues to say, "Given by The Boys of the Eastern Range La Junta, Colorado Wednesday, December Thirtieth, '08". An attractive print font is used. Dotted border on front cover margin. Cover also has gilt imprint of steer or cow with horns, & with decorative device on either side. Back cover lists Committees in charge of the event. The inside folder is the "Tally Book" dance card with 34 dances listed (each with a cattle brand beside it) & a line for the dance partners' names to be penciled in. This dancer penciled in 18 dances/partners. In addition to the 34 dances, the evening began with "Cow Boys' Grand March -- Quadrille" & it ended with "Maverick Home Sweet Home". The right leaf of the inner folder was once apparently glued to the inside of the back cover, but is no longer attached. Two brown strips of glue are on the inside of the back cover & there is no residue whatsoever on the facing back page of the folded leaf. Covers lightly soiled & slightly spotted. [5014033] Leach, Eugene Walter. RACINE COUNTY MILITANT An Illustrated Narrative of War Times, and a Soldier' Roster. ill. . Privately Printed, Racine, 1915, 1st edition. Royal 8vo gilt-stamped burgundy cloth. 394pp.. Illustrated abundantly with small portraits & full page images; also photos of documents. This book is an incredibly extensive listing of name of soldiers from Racine County, Wisconsin, who served in the Civil War and the Spanish-American War. The title page continues: "A Pioneer Publication Undertaken in the interest of Patriotic Americans in Racine County, Wisconsin." And further, "A home-made book, about home people, for home people." First half of the book is composed of continuous short, linked narratives describing the situation, conditions in Racine Co., politics, resisters to the war & to Lincoln, their punishment, etc. There are multiple lists of people, such as those who contributed to the Patriotic Fund, & how much they gave; prisoners of war; reunion of regiments. Information on Camp Utley, Soldiers' Aid Societies, etc.. The last two-thirds of the volume consists of multiple rosters from both wars, including unit assignment, rank, where they were from, & when mustered out. Also lists of the dead. Lists of Commanders-in-Chief of the of the GAR Encampments according to state, date of election, & location of Encampments. Having spent this much ink in trying to describe this volume, let me say that it would take all night to list the items therein. One two pages, the name of Heinrich Schelp is circled (Civil War roster, & prisoner of war list). Condition: Good+. One page has badly wrinkled corner. Covers have wear to extremities, but are certainly good+. A rarity.

[SHEL055] Leslie, Mrs. Frank. FRANK LESLIE'S SCENES AND PORTRAITS OF THE CIVIL WAR. FRANK LESLIE'S ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE CIVIL WAR. Mrs. Frank Leslie, NY, 1894, First Edition. Folio, 11 3/4" x 16 1/2" closed. True first cloth bound edition, 1894. 480pp. Profusely illustrated with wood engravings and other types of print images, some double spread, some single page, and some multiple images on a page. The title page continues: "Most Important Events of the Conflict Between the States graphically pictured. Stirring Battle Scenes and Grand Naval Engagements, drawn by special artists on the spot. Portraits of Principal Participants, Military and Civil; Famous Forts; Pathetic Episodes, Etc., Etc. the whole forming An Authentic Pictorial History of the War, by such well-known artists as (extended list) with an introduction by Joseph B. Carr, Major-General..." Condition: Re-backed with almost the entire original cloth retained over a new spine -- small loss to original cloth at spine ends. Otherwise rebound in original covers and endpapers with new binding that has tightened the text block and made this copy ready for another one hundred years of reference and enjoyment to the collector and researcher. Some pages have a few very short edge tears. There are four sequential leaves that inexplicably have chipped edges but the chips do not affect the images or text on those pages. There is a very handsomely written ownership signature & date in broad pencil on a blank preliminary page, "April 1, 1895 William K. Hayes Bridgeport, Conn." Gilt on the cover is very good. There is some general wear & the right edge area of the front cover is darker than the rest of the cover. The rear cover has considerable old moisture stain/bleaching, and thus is compromised visually, but is clean and stable. Very scarce now in the first edition.

[0411083] Lewis & Clark Centennial. Creamer. , A very pretty small creamer commemorating the 1905 Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition in Portland, Oregon. Standing 3 1/2" high, & 2 1/4" wide at the widest area above the base, this creamer has the Festival Hall pictured on it. Above the hall are the words, "Lewis & Clark Centennial Portland Oregon 1906". Below the hall in the decorative design are the words "Festival Hall". There are no makers' marks or stamps on the bottom. A hairline crack runs from the lip down under the top of the handle to just about where the turquoise coloring begins, but it hardly detracts from the beauty of the piece. The tiniest of chips is at the bottom of the hairline crack. An exceptional piece for Lewis & Clark collectors that will command a small, but proud place in someone's china cabinet or special shelf. A crowning item to have in the midst of the Lewis and Clark bi-centennial. Digital photos available upon request. Rare.

[SHEL114] New York. Tuxedo. Orange County. Freemasons. Mystical Seven. Notarized Document. Tuxedo, New York, 1914: yes. Original document. 9 1/2" x 14" in original frame & under glass. Sealed by a Notary Public in Tuxedo, Orange County, New York. Initially, it appears to be related to a young women's society or club, but there is more to it that meets the eye. It has the notary seal with a ribbon that partially reads "R GIRLS" over it, & is signed in ink by 29 people, 4 of whom are the "Managing Committee", and two of whom are signed under the ribbon. All but the two names under the ribbon have small orange seals beside them. Typed in light print, and with three corrections, the document reads, "It is here-by agreed, that we the undersigned, on the day and date here-in after mentioned will be one of the party going to Monroe, starting from Tuxedo at seven oclock (sic) in the afternoon, on the Nineteenth day of January, One Thousand nine hundred and four..." Etc., etc.. Below the seal & above the four signatures of the managing committee is written in red ink, "Red Lemonade (?) Tablets to be used will be strictly in accordance with the formula of the I. D. G. T. The frame is backed with narrow slats, upon which there is a label with the following written in ink: "Presented to the "Mystic Seven" January 26th - 1904 by the "oudinae (?) Four". Therein lies a clue and a mystery. There is, on the internet, information about the "Mystical Seven". The website includes a long essay on the subject, and cites a 1907 encyclopedia entry re the society, "which is now thought to be dead, was in some respects one of the most remarkable and most ambitious college societies in the country" with its roots in the history of Freemasonry in the country. The website gives the history of the "Mystical Seven" which lately continued to exist at Wesleyan. There are further and extensive connections to the history of Freemasonry in the United States, to Wesleyan University, Methodism, & much more. Perhaps the reference to "the Mystic Seven" is only a kind of knock-off from the real thing, but the reference is nonetheless intriguing. The names on this document include the names of both men and women, although almost of the signatures are first two initials and then last names. This is an unusual document to say the least, and undoubtedly a rare piece. $200.00

[0603124] Nichols, Harry Peirce). Stevens, W. Bertrand. VICTORIOUS MOUNTAINEER A Memoir of Harry Peirce Nichols, PLUS, original signed photograph. Cloister Press, Louisville, 1943, First Edition. Signed by Author. Small 8vo cloth. 78pp. Illustrated with chapter head drawings. Frontispiece portrait: "Harry Peirce Nichols in the Canadian Rockies in his eightieth year." Inscribed by Stevens on the ffep. A good, if short, biography of the well-known mountaineering Episcopal priest & pastor of several churches, including Holy Trinity Church in Harlem. Lightly soiled, but vg. No dj. Very scarce. ALONG WITH LARGE ORIGINAL black & white PHOTOGRAPH of Nichols, and signed by him, "Affectionately Yours Harry Peirce Nichols", on the mat, to which the photo is glued. Silver print, size: 10 3/4" x 11 7/8". The image is of Nichols sitting atop a rock formation on a mountain top, location unidentified (hazy back ground). Nichols, who appears to be in his 60s or early 70s, is dressed in climbing clothing, with hat on his head, & is pointing beyond the left of the image with outstretched arm, tilted slightly upwards. He is looking towards a focal point, as if to another mountain. The Rev. Nichols' mountaineering credentials are as impressive as his ecclesiastical ones: from 1881 a member of Appalachian Alpine Club. One of the founders & a president of the American Alpine Club. Founder of the Harvard Alpine Club. "For more than sixty years he climbed in the White Mountains", climbing Mount Washington over 250 times. Charles Wilcox's great work on the Selkirk Mountains of British Columbia devotes several pages to Nichols' account of being one of the first American climbers in those high & rugged mountains west of the Canadian Rockies. He ascended Mt. Fox in 1893. The photo is in an old frame & is in excellent condition. A most collectable & rare combination. $750.00

[0309115] Parker, J. M.. AND (sic) AGED WANDERER A Life Sketch of J. M. Parker A Cowboy on the Western Plains in the Early Days (correct title: AN AGED WANDERER). Privately Printed, San Angelo, (1923), First Edition. Original Wraps. Fine Variant edition. Tall, printed & pictorial gray wraps (12.3 cm x 21.4 cm). 38pp. Frontispiece of Parker on first unnumbered page, verso blank, followed by numbered pp. 1-38. Adams' Sixguns describes the first edition with the same vertical dimension, but with 32pp & with the portrait on the verso of the front cover. He has the 2nd edition under a different title ("The Poor Orphan Boy," etc.), with 39pp, & only 16.6 cm. Both are considered exceedingly rare. Where this copy, possibly unique (most dramatically with the misspelling of the title "And" instead of "An") fits into the printing history of Parker's book is certainly subject to speculation. In terms of content, Adams criticizes the author's claim to have been a close friend of Billy the Kid, & excoriates his facts. Yet it has made its way into the Texas - New Mexico - Cowboy - Outlaw canon of books most desired & valuable. "The author was an old Texas cowboy who became crippled with paralysis and sold these little books for a livelihood as he wandered over the country." (Adams). "In spite of its errors, it is a much sought and important collector's item." (Adams). The paper cover is split straight up the fold 3", & has been archivally repaired. Some of the upper right page corners are mildly pressure bent from usage, except for one corner which was formerly creased. Lower right front cover has a 3/4" mild former crease. Letter press printed on a good quality paper, this copy is in remarkable condition with a clear & complete impression on the front cover of both the cowboy - with - lasso illustration, & the print information (title, author, price, place -- "Elkhorn Wagon Yard San Angelo, Texas" -- & decorative frame). Even with the closed split, it is certainly a vg copy. To repeat, this variant, unknown to all bibliographers I have consulted, is most certainly exceedingly rare & possibly unique. 6-guns 1679, Herd 1757, Howes P78, 150 #111. Not in Dykes Kid.

[9805128] PENNSYLVANIA REWARD CARD.. (two thousand, five hundred dollars) REWARD.. Titusville, Pa., Nov. 11, 1899., Card 4 1/4 inches x 5 3/4 inches. Front of card describes a robbery, by 3 persons, of the D.A.V. & P.R.R. station. The robbers proceeded to the house of Bertha Bloom where they robbed the residents, shot & killed Chief of Police McGrath, & wounded Patrolman Sheehy. One of the robbers was killed, a second captured, but the third was still at large. He, Frank Woodard, alias Frederick Adams, is described at length. On the back of the card are 2 prison photos, probably from a prior incarceration, of Woodard in white shirt, bow tie, & coat. County of Crawford offered (two thousand dollars) & the City of Titusville (five hundred dollars) for arrest & conviction. Names of 3 County Commissioners & the Mayor are given. Small ink spot under right photo; couple of creases running across 3/4 width of photos; light soiling. Very acceptable condition for most collectors.

[5012039] Persons, Albert C. (Buck). THE TRUE SELMA STORY Sex and Civil Rights. Esco, Birmingham, 1965, 1st edition. Black, white, & red glossy, dramatic pictorial 4to wraps. 32pp. Illustrated with b/w photos from the Civil Rights marches of 1963. The author is better known for his book on the Bay of Pigs, where he was a pilot for the CIA. The item offered here attempts to debunk the altruistic reasons for the freedom marches and assassinate the characters of civil rights leaders & marchers. Even the author's comments on certain chosen photos tries to do this. Contents: "Black Knight of the Civil Rights Movement" (re Rev. King), "Sex and Civil Rights" (young civil rights demonstrators were really down there for love!), "Bayard and Ralph, Just a Couple of the Boys" ("unsavory police and court records of the leaders), "How 'Images' Are Created" (alternative ways to interpret certain brutality photos), "Martin Luther King and Communism" (supposed "long and conclusive evidence of ..King's.. "association with known Communist Party members". LAID INTO THIS SCARCE ITEM is a folded sheet of drawing paper with two 5" x 8" pen & ink cartoons. Certainly very well drawn, they are captioned with derogatory & racist rhyming verses referring to Mr. Dray (perhaps Philip Dray, author of the 1988 book, "We Are Not Afraid" ?), and "Rebberend Mr. Wallentine". Both are shown making speeches or sermons in front of caricatured black men & women. If an unpleasant reminder of the ugliness & violence surrounding the Civil Rights Movement, then perhaps an important & vivid documentation of the hatred of the period. Near fine condition. Very, very scarce.

One of the most sumptuously illustrated photo-art books published in the last few years, certainly in the field of the American West. This tremendous book on the frontier photography of Montana's L. A. Huffman is not only the first substantial book published on him since the 1950s, it is difficult to imagine that any book can ever surpass this one on the subject. Authoritative text by Peterson accompanies images taken for the most part from original Huffman plates belonging to a superb private collection. Copiously illustrated are, as well, related books, ephemera, etc. of Huffman's work, or items Huffman contributed to. All 2,000 copies were sold rapidly & this clothbound edition is out of print. Fine, as new in dj.

[0404101] Photograph). Indians. N.p., N.d., Circa 1930s? Group of Four Indians, with one figure in shadow on the edge. 3 1/4" x 5 1/2". This is a very personal snapshot of three adults and a boy. Their demeanor and facial expressions certainly communicate a kinship of care for one another and probably for the photographer. No information on location or date, much less names. It could be just about anywhere on the High Plains, such as Montana, Wyoming, or the Dakotas, I suppose, but you folks from Texas or Oklahoma might say it could be there. Vertical crease on left side. Digital photo available on email by request. Good+ [0011107] Photograph). TESUQUE PUEBLO INDIAN - SANTA FE.. No. 10. C.G. Kaadt (stated on lower right corner, & abundant imprint information on back of mount)., Image size 4 3/4" x 7". Each of the two left corners of the photo has a small chip, triangular, extending along the borders 1/2" to 3/4". A very good, sharp, slightly sepia image on 5" x 8" mount. Printed information on back of card with much on Santa Fe "FOR THE HEALTH SEEKER". Ad for The Denver & Rio Grande R.R. Imprint of "SANTA FE VIEW AND CURIO CO. Wholesale & Retail Dealers in INDIAN AND MEXICAN VIEWS & CURIOS Manufacturers of the BURRO BANNER MATCH SAFE. G.C. KAADT, Publisher, SANTA FE, N.M." The photographer practiced his craft in Santa Fe 1899-1905 & was official photographer for the Santa Fe Central R.R., & also published Hillers' work under the Kaadt imprint, according to authority Carl Mautz. A really nice image of a mounted Indian sporting an unusual headdress (maybe not for the Tesuque). (Digital image of the photo emailed upon request, but must be serious prospective buyer).

[0411113] Photograph. Spanish American War. . Star Photo, St. Louis, ca 1898, FOUR CAVALRY CAMP SOLDIERS sit together in front of a tent. They include Corporal Hiram Wood. Dimensions are 4" x 5", and it is a bromide photograph. The photo is affixed to the usual photo backing, the back of which is stamped "STAR PHOTO CO. / 713 N. 8th Street, / ST. LOUIS." Under that printing Cpl. Wood has written, in black ink, "U.S. Cav. My mess mates / Copl. Hiram Wood". In a search on the internet, the only Hiram Wood which appears is a Sergeant, he was with a unit in the early part of the Civil War. A search for Star Photo Co. places it at two other locations in St. Louis between 1910 - 1920. Very good condition with a few tiny flecks. In the faint upper background, one can see the tops & sides of other tents.

[0404102] Pratson, Frederick John. LAND OF THE FOUR DIRECTIONS. Chatham Press, Old Greenwich, 1970, 1st edition. Attractive oblong medium sized 4to pictorial cloth. 131pp. Illustrated with some very candid & well shot b/w photos. Inscribed by two Lakota Sioux, Montana HR Walking Bull & Gilbert Walking Bull. The latter (who has also written his Lakota name & its translation) is an Elder & teacher of the Seven Sacred Principles of the Lakota. The former is associated with the latter & they were co-authors of a book. A very helpful website says that Gilbert is a linear descendant of Moves Camp and Sitting Bull. However, the book is about the Passamaquoddy, Maliseet, & Micmac of Maine & New Brunswick. The text is quite straightforward, looking critically at the problems of the people, criticizing the mixed benevolence of the Catholic Church, & bluntly criticizing President Nixon's lack of interest in the welfare of Indians. Fine in dj with edge wear & closed 1" or so tears. A very worthwhile & poignant book. Exceptional association copy.

[SHEL087] Pruiett, Moman (and Howard Berry). MOMAN PRUIETT Criminal Lawyer. Privately Published, OKC, 1944, First Edition. Blue cloth. 580pp. Illust/photos. Frontispiece of Pruiett. fos of C. E. Dudley (1945) on front paste down. One of the most remarkable lawyers to practice law in the West & certainly in Oklahoma, & a champion read! From the title page: "The life story of the man who defended 343 persons charged with murder. The record shows 303 acquittals and the only client to hear the death sentence pronounced was saved by Presidential clemency." I believe it is accurate to say that the authorship & publication of the book was in dispute, & the reasons are too elaborate to present in this space. This copy vg. Some sort of a gift presentation dated Dec. 9, 1944, has been marked over with a black crayon. Pencil note at inscriptions says "see page 57". The inscription is very likely referring to someone on that page. Part of inscription says, "able assistant". Otherwise this copy is clean & tight. There is some fading to the covers, but the fading to the backstrip is much less than usually found on these books. Very scarce. No dj (I have never seen a dj for this book).

Original boards & 1/2 later library cloth in 8vo.. 297pp. Illustrated with 26 excellent engravings, mostly in monotone, but a few in absolutely gorgeous color. The title continues after extensive subtitle to say, "... accompanied with COPIES OF MR. FULTON'S ORIGINAL DRAWINGS AND NUMEROUS PLATES," etc.. The thirteen chapters include, "Fine Arts, and Mechanic Arts -- A Short History of Benjamin West, and the Inventions of Mr. Fulton", "Inland Navigation, Civil Engineering, and Statesmanship of Fulton", "Torpedoes", "Submarine Navigation, and Plunging-Boat", "Steam Navigation, and Fulton's Success", "The last will and testament of Robert Fulton". This copy rather gently ex-lib, with library bookplate on front paste down, stamped call number on bottom of spine, a couple of interior library numbers. New ffep to match paste down. Hinges professionally repaired. Not exactly a "Western book", but with Western expansion interest as well as Civil War interest, although it predates the War. Good, tight copy. Very scarce. [5003025] Rhinelander, Wisconsin. (Cabinet Photo Album, Rhinelander). N.p., ca 1900, Rhinelander, in the Northwoods (alternate spelling: North Woods) of Wisconsin 55 miles north of Wausau & 90 miles south of Lake Superior (with Michigan's Upper Peninsula -- the UP -- in between), was a booming community in the 1890s. This is a great glance at a few people who lived there a hundred years or more ago. This item is an 8 1/2" x 10 3/4" red clothbound cabinet photo album with decorated metal corner pieces, a metal clasp & a mirror in the middle. Binding is in vg+ condition & the velvet pile is mostly worn away on the front cover & moderately so on the back cover. There is moderate soiling. Inside are 33 cabinet portraits. 25 are from Rhinelander photographers (exactly imprinted as: Wolcott, C. Krueger, B.F. Kaler ("successor to Krueger"), Carl Krueger, Krueger & Co., V.E. Wolcott, and Banister & Tibbitts). Other portraits: Knudsen of Waupaca, Towne of Shelby, Michigan, Winkle of Wautoma, James of Waupaca, & Warmbold of Chicago. Only two photos have names supposedly of the subjects on the back: "Emma & Mennia B." (the Selby, Mich. photo) & "ada" on a C. Krueger photo. While most of the photos are adults presented conventionally for the time, a handful have added photo interest compositionally, or with children as the subject (8 children portraits, plus a couple of family portraits). All the photos have been very carefully removed for examination & reinserted back into their album pockets. Most are in vg or better condition. Some have some light rubbing or flecking. One has a couple of thumbnail size orange stains. Most of the photo page mounts are in generally very good condition with several having a torn or chipped entry slot, and two with the bottom strip missing. There are three pages without a photo (one double sided leaf vacant on both sides, & one leaf with one side vacant). This represents, we believe, an uncommon opportunity to acquire a nice set of period photos from a popular Northern Wisconsin and Northwoods city.

[SHEL047] Rossell, Daniela.. RICAS Y FAMOSAS. (RICH AND FAMOUS). Spain: Turner, Madrid, 2002., 2002. First Edition. The quickly out-of-print scarce 1st printing or issue. (Only 10,000 copies printed in the first run, & 4,000 sold in Mexico). Stiff folio pict wrappers with foldover flaps. Unpaginated. THIS COPY is indeed the true first printing as opposed to the common second printing and possibly later printings (printings are not specifically stated in the publication information). Lavishly illustrated. One page essay on Rossell & her photography written by Barry Schwabsky. Bilingual: Spanish & English. Brief Preface simply says, "The following images depict actual settings. The photographic subjects are representing themselves. Any resemblance with real events is not coincidental." An Associated Press article by John Rice says, "In a society in which conspicuous consumption is a minor industry, an art book portraying wealthy Mexicans rolling in riches has the country's intellectuals sputtering outrage. 'Ricas y Famosas' shows its subjects - mostly young women - vamping, posing and playing amid extravagant possessions." This is a book you'll never forget. Your bookseller acquired, shortly after initial distribution, the last few copies of the first printing available from a major distributor. Information on "points" of issue will be shared with purchasers. Fine, as new.

[0508120] Sage, Rufus B.. ROCKY MOUNTAIN LIFE or Startling Scenes and Perilous Adventures in the Far West. W. T. Seaman, Omaha, n.d.(1860 or 1870s?), Later printing (Rader says "enlarged edition") of book originally published in 1846 under the title, Scenes in the Rocky Mountains, and in Oregon, California, New Mexico, Texas, etc., published in Philadelphia. Gilt-stamped & decorative blind-stamped original cloth with title in gilt on spine, & also blind-stamped "New Adventure Library" on spine. 363pp. Illustrated with several well-executed woodcuts, mainly of classic, noble-appearing Indians after Bodmer and/or Catlin, but also of Western animals. An owner (initials W. R. A.) contemporary with the time of publication, most likely, has written a nearly full page note in ink (fine penmanship), to the effect that it is not alright to "leave thumb marks on the pages of this book, nor to turn down the corners of the leaves." A few pages later, the same penman has neatly written on the blank recto of an illustration the following: "The man who borrows a book and reads it through without turning down the corners of the leaves or leaving the prints of his thumbs is a gentleman and a scholar, and a good judge of whiskey." On the lower part of the t-p is the small, slightly decorative oval ink stamp of the "Omaha Weekly Bee -- Premium." Wagner - Camp - Becker says that the present title appeared in 1857 with a Boston imprint. There was also a Cincinnati publisher. This publisher & place of publication not recorded. Howes says, an "intelligent narrative of extensive travels from the Platte to the Arkansas, including the best contemporary account of Snively's abortive land-pirate expedition." Much more material on places throughout the Rocky Mountain West. There are no ads in the back of this edition, as there were in other later editions. One plate called for in the original edition, out of 25, is not present (Frontispiece: "Attack on a Herd of Buffaloes"). Vg, remarkable condition with minor wear to corners & upper corners ever so slightly bumped. This edition apparently rare. WCB 123, Howes S16, Graff 3633, Mintz 402, Mattes 61 & 68, Cowan p548f., SFT 502, Smith 8923, Rader 2869.

[0511148] Schreyvogel, Charles. MY BUNKIE AND OTHERS. Moffat, Yard & Co., NY, 1909, First Edition. 1st edition. Oblong decorated & pictorial hardbound (paper over boards). Unpag. Illustrated with full page plates, the artist's superb & rare work on the U. S. Cavalry in the American West. This copy with large blemish on front cover & three plates archivally rejoined near spine. Details: Covers worn with some stains including a quarter-sized blotch. The big deal is that a previous owner spilled something on the front cover & the heat or the chemical "scorched" a lengthy swath from the bottom right corner upwards & to the left, under & just past the horse & rider image. The image is not affected, but it goes though the shadow of the horse. Three of the plates have been cleanly & straightly cut through. HOWEVER, the cuts are well to the left of the prints on those plates, near the binding. These have been carefully & archivally reattached. The keynote painting, My Bunkie, was, according to the two-page publisher's essay, "Charles Schreyvogel and His Art", offered originally to some lithographers -- they passed on it -- and a restaurateur thought it not worth hanging. The artist ended up entering it at the National Academy of Design where it won the Clarke prize for "best American figure composition." Cover damage & plates cuts lower my price severely. Dykes 50 p378, Howes S199.

This title is very, very scarce in any edition, particularly in the English language edition. It is most difficult to procure in spite of its publication not many years ago. Well-reviewed, this scholarly study by the, at time of publication, "Chairman of the School of History and Head of Medieval Studies at the Univ. of Tel-Aviv", "examines attitudes towards children, images of childhood, and the concept of the stages of childhood in medieval culture, from the nobility to the peasantry." (publisher's comments). The former owner has a small private library label on the inside of the front cover, and an ink name stamp on a blank area of the title page. Name stamp also on the top & bottom edges. Else fine.

[FLIC028] Shelley, Percy Bysshe). Rossetti, William Michael (Reviser, Notes, Memoir). THE COMPLETE POETICAL WORKS OF PERCY BYSSHE SHELLEY. John Slark, London, 1885, First Thus. Blue calf. Three volumes. 451, 456, 443pp. Gilt-stamped spines with raised bands. Marbled endpapers. A good reading set inasmuch as the joints are cracked or beginning to crack. Vol I front cover loosening from the joint. Faded spines dressed so they don't look so faded on the shelf. All edges gilt, but a 3/4" x 1 1/2" area on the bottom edge of vol. I has the gilt removed. An ink stain had bled into the bottoms of the page margins of that volume & was carefully removed, but also removing the gilt at that location. Some shadows or outlines on the page margins where the ink was removed. For someone who will be using these volume rather hard, some joint work/reinforcement would be important for the long haul. But, with all faults mentioned, this set will economically serve someone's use well. Vol. I has etching of Shelley. Vol. II has fold out facsimile of Shelley's writing. Vol. III has etching of Shelley's tomb. Bound by Spoittiswoode & Co., Ltd..

Vol III (1st ed.) is THE LAST OF THE INDIAN WARS, THE SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR, THE BRINK OF THE GREAT WAR 1881 - 1916. Vol IV (1st ed.) is WORLD WAR I, THE PEACETIME ARMY, WORLD WAR II 1917 - 1943. This set is obviously a labor of love, extensively researched, well-executed, & a wealth of information. Included in our Oklahoma catalogue because of the extensive presence of the frontier cavalry in Indian Territory. Fine in dust jackets with general light edgewear. Vol IV has a couple of small chips. (Count 4 volumes for shipping).

[FTR101] Stegner, Wallace. THE PREACHER AND THE SLAVE. Houghton Mifflin, Boston, 1950., First Edition. Cloth. 403pp. Two large lending library stamps on ffep, but no back pocket nor stamps/marks on title page. Stamp on bottom edge & two small stamps hardly noticeable on top edge. Wear to bottom cover corners & edges. Some old brown paper (not from dj) is stuck to front pastedown under bend of flap in the middle; it resulted in a 1" x 3" stain to the dj flap. Large piece of brown paper stuck on back paste down under back flap. Loss of inside coating of back flap covered with 3 pieces of tape. Price clipped dj has been trimmed along the bottom edges by 1/2", resulting in some loss to "Mifflin" at the bottom of the backstrip. On the front panel, cut is barely to the bottom of the "g" in "Stegner" on the front panel. Former owner had dj positioned mid way, so trip didn't look as severe. Old tape type burns at corners of free endsheets, but no tape present nor any tape residue. Good reading copy & scarce in any condition.

[0211140] Stelfox, Henry. John G. Stelfox, Edit.. RAMBLING THOUGHTS OF A WANDERING FELLOW 1903 - 1968.. Privately Printed, Edmonton, 1972., First Thus. Signed by Author. Mimeographed copy bound in full leather by the High Level Bindery, gilt-stamped on cover & spine. 235 printed pages, versos blank. Photos. Signed by Henry Stelfox. This fascinating account begins with the author's years with the South African Constabulary 1903 - 06. He reports his observations of the Boers, Zulus, etc. He moves on to Alberta, Canada, where he logged, ranches, homesteaded & became a businessman, beginning in Calgary, & on to the Banff area, Rocky Mountain House, & other communities. Much on early history of Alberta Indians, ranching, fur trade, animals (Skunk for Dinner, Saddling a Grizzly Bear, etc.) & nature. Vignettes about Ogopogi, frontier characters, & sleeping with a corpse. Stelfox was a friend of the Indians & much is written of that. He was a strong conservationist instrumental in the founding of the Alberta Fish & Game Assoc. He speaks freely of his Christian faith. A well written memoir of early days in Alberta. Fine, & we suspect not very many copies were mimeographed & bound. Very scarce; likely rare.

[5005026] Stone, Witmer. BIRD STUDIES AT OLD CAPE MAY An Ornithology of Coastal New Jersey. Delaware Valley Ornithological Club, Phila., 1937, 1st edition, ltd to 1,400 copies, this set #88. Two volumes, quarto green cloth with gilt-stamped titles. 941pp. Illustrated with exquisite detailed pen & ink drawings & photos. Color frontispieces. Index. Most attractively drawn endpaper maps. Inscribed, signed & dated "for Jacqueline P. Evans by her friend Witmer Stone Dec. 20, 1937." Small ink stamp of Cope Environmental Center on lower half-title of volume I. Hinges of volume one professionally redone & it is tight. Volume two not quite as tight, but in very good shape with no cracking to the papers.. Moderate wear to extremities; no exposed boards. Blank rectos of glossy paper frontispieces with foxing along the edges. It looks a bit like dampstain but it's too uniform & I don't believe it is. Same on back couple of leaf edges to each volume, so I think it's from the brown free endpapers. Foxing to inside upper corner of each frontispiece from browned onion-skin protectors. Very good set or just a touch under very good due to the showing of wear to the cover edges. What an excellent treatment in the world of published ornithology!

[TA001] Sylvestre, Henri (Descriptive Text). THE TRIUMPHS OF MODERN ART: Containing The Most Notable Paintings Of To-Day, Selected From The Modern Masterpieces Of The Whole World Of Art. Gebbie & Co., Phila.. Copyrighted, but no date; circa 1890 - 1900, 1st Thus. Hard Cover. Two Volumes. First Edition (but not the Japan Edition of multiple separate loose portfolios). Approx 12" x 17" full calf folio. Decoratively blind-stamped on the front covers, with gilt title. Spine titles, volume numbers, & decorative devices are in gilt. Raised bands. Beautifully marbled endpapers with gild-decorated calf over three edges of the pastedowns. Unpaginated. Each volume has 50 magnificent full page photogravures & etchings (total of 91 gravures & 9 etchings), and each has 100 typogravures (total of 200). The photogravures are monotypes in various hues: light to dark sepia, aqua-blue, gray, black & white, etc... Plates are 10 1/2" x 16 3/8", & the borders range from approx. 1 1/2" to 3" per edge. Each photogravure plate has an impression "bite" between the image & the edge. Each plate is attached to the binding by a flexible cloth hinge. Preceding each plate, interleaved by a full sized paper guard, is a page with two typogravures which may or may not be by the same artist of the plate, and brief descriptions of the artists & their subjects. Condition, covers: Covers very good with 3 of 4 joints starting at the top (1/2" to 2"). Leather on front upper corner of Vol. I is chipped 1' x 1 1/2", exposing the board underneath. Top/bottom of spines with differing wear, more so, naturally, on the bottom. Bottom of spine of Vol. I is worn down a little. Otherwise very slight to moderate wear. Condition, plates/pages: Vol. I: On the first four plates, 2 1/2" x 5" water stain-marks on top right corner that decreases in size & ends after the fourth plate (with title page, in between first & second plates, affected only with some waviness in that area). On the third & fourth plates the stain is very faint. Only the frontispiece photogravure (plate one of the four) has the stain overlapping a corner of the print, but on that part of the print it is not noticeable; it is only noticeable on the two adjacent borders. On the last ten plates, a rather large triangular 5" x 6" water-stain-mark on the top right corner decreases in size from the last plate, with the stain affecting the corners of the last two images just noticeably. Borders are most noticeably affected. Vol. II: 2" x 2" stain on the top right corner of first few pages (title page is very lightly affected), which fades & decreases in size (only affects first five plate borders, including frontispiece etching). On the last 6 plates, a small 1" x 2 1/2" water stain-mark on the top right corner decreases in size from the last plate, affecting only the borders. In the two volumes, four of the thin paper guards protrude past the fore edge. The paper guards over the title pages have vertical creases (mild in Vol. II) due to a tendency to fall back improperly when closing the volumes. Weight of the two volumes together is 20 lbs. Eighty-nine different artists are represented by the plates, primarily Dutch and/or Flemish, English, French, German, & Italian, & many more in the typogravures. Several digital images are available upon request for the prospective buyer. A serious search on the internet reveals a few of the plates selling individually at auction in the range of $35 to $85 and higher, with most appearing to sell at $55 - $65 apiece. In spite of the corner water stains on some of the plates, this is an exceptional set of finely executed prints of 19th Century European art, with some works representing historical figures (e.g., Napoleon, Cleopatra, Beethoven, Robert Burns, etc.) & tableaus (e.g., Return from Tel-El-Kebir, The Cossacks of the Imperial Russian Guard, etc.), specific locations (e.g., Hyde Park, Champs - Elysees, Garden of the Luxembourg, etc.), social, home, & natural settings.

Pictorial green stapled wraps. 206pp. Illustrated with rare photos taken by S.J. Morrow (whose original plates were accidentally destroyed soon after he took them), & others, such as D.F. Barry. This is an exceedingly rare history of parts of the Dakotas & the Upper Missouri, with much on the northern plains Indians & some material on lawlessness & Dakota vigilantes. This copy is tight, complete, & the covers have no chips or significant tears. However, many of the pages & plates are stained, some have old mildew residue, & the covers are moderately faded. A few page margins have short tears archivally closed. A former owner covered, with tape, the spine & adjoining edges of the covers. Plus, THE AMMASSALIK ESKIMO A Rejoinder. Bianco Lunos Bogtrykkeri, (Copenhagen), 1916, 1917, First Thus. Royal 8vo period decorated paper over boards bound in 1/4 leather, gilt-stamped on the spine. 54pp & 45pp. There are a few small illustrations. Bound together are two monographs, one 1916) by Thomsen which is a criticism of the Thalbitzer edition of a volume in Meddelelser om Gronland on the Angmagsalik - Ammassalik Eskimos. This Thomsen volume is: "The Angagsalik Eskimo Notes and Corrections to Vol. XXXIX of Meddelelser om Gronland" (above this title is printed, "Reprint of Meddelelser om Gronland LIII Nos. IV & V."). The second monograph (1917) is Thalbitzers scathing rebuttal to Thomsen, & criticism of the Ethnographical Department at the National Museum of Copenhagen which housed the collection pertinent to the subject. This rebuttal by Thalbitzer is titled, "The Ammassalik Eskimo A Rejoinder". The background of both manuscripts is the 1884 Holm expedition, & subsequent expeditions, to Greenland, and the finding of a group of Eskimos not previously known, even though the Danish presence in Greenland had associated with other groups for 200 years. Thalbitzer, himself, wintered in Ammassalik in 1905 - 06. To summarize, this is a polemical item, the first part a detailed & technical criticism by Thomsen of Thalbitzer's work, and the second part a fierce rebuttal by Thalbitzer. Near fine condition. Decorative paper was intentionally trimmed at the extreme corners of the covers. One corner slightly bumped. There are a couple of ink numbers at the top of the front pasted down. There is a small museum deaccession stamp (Aarhus Naturhistorisk Museum) at the bottom of the second title page, but absolutely no library call numbers, pockets, labels, etc. on the book. There is an elegant, dime-sized booksellers label on a rear blank leaf. These two volumes are written in English. I cannot find out if there was a Danish edition, and if this is a translation. Rare.

[0505139] Tombstone, Arizona. PHOTOGRAPHS. N.p., N.d., A great group of five 7 1/2" x 9 1/2" unframed black & white glossy photos from Tombstone, Arizona, circa 1950. Digital images sent upon request. These photos were in a larger group of photos taken by an Army Air Force photographer. They show a true professional eye. An elderly, weather beaten gentleman in two of the images is unidentified, but he certainly captures the mythological essence of Arizona and the desert about mid 20th Century or earlier. One photo of him is a great looking waist-up portrait, & the other has him sitting on the window sill of an old building. The other photos include a "Welcome to Tombstone" sign with details about Boot Hill. There are two photos from Boot Hill: the grave of Mrs. Ah Lum (China Mary), & the graves & headboard of Tom McLowrey, Frank McLowrey, & Billie Clanton ("Murdered on the streets of Tombstone"). Note the variant spellings of the McLaurys & Billy Clanton! There is a Dec. 16 date for the death of "China Mary" on her headboard, instead of Dec. 6. On the McLaury photo, in the background are a couple of people on the horizon, one of them looking at what is apparently the Scheffelin monument. The condition of these photos is almost fine, with a small bump on one corner of a couple of them & one or two small thumb edge creases. These are perhaps unique original photos & will show beautifully when appropriately matted & framed.

Gilt-stamped cloth. 276pp. Illust/photos. Association copy inscribed by Dr. Howard O. Smith, former Pres. of Texas Medical Assoc., to Janice K_____, "Friend, and Scholar and Lady", dated in 1958. Torbett founded the Torbett Clinic & Hospital, Marlin, Texas. Smith practiced there. Laid in are four letters (in three custom printed envelopes) personally & warmly written, from Dr. Smith to Miss K_____ in the 1930s on his clinic stationary. They are addressed to her at the State Dept. of _____. Also laid in is a printed invitation honoring Smith for 50 years of practice. There is a small stack of news clippings regarding Smith, & three additional ones are taped to the endpapers of the book. On two sides of the frontispiece portrait of Torbett is an ink note by the owner to the effect, "Dr. J. W. cured my Mother of _____." Fore edges of the book have a small stain. Last couple of leaves have tiny flecks stuck to the margins from something previously adhered to them; also on a couple of other isolated margins. Dj has one small chip top of backstrip, but has wear to extremities. Bookplate of original owner on rectos of frontispiece & first photograph. Couple of text marginalia notes. [0408138] Triplett, Frank. THE LIFE, TIMES AND TREACHEROUS DEATH OF JESSE JAMES. J. H. Chambers & Co., Chicago, Ill., St. Louis, MO., Atlanta, Ga., 1882, First Edition. 8vo - over 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ " - 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ " tall. Hard Cover. 1st edition, 2nd issue, so identified with frontispiece portrait of Jesse. Gilt-stamped & blind stamped pictorial cloth. 416pp. Illustrated with engravings. A second edition with an added chapter on Frank James' surrender was supposedly issued in November of 1882 and was 425pp. The title continues: "The only correct and authorized edition. Giving full particulars of each and every dark and desperate deed in the career of this most noted outlaw of any time or nation. The facts and incidents contained in this Volume, were dictated to Frank Triplett, by Mrs. Jesse James, wife of the bandit. and Mrs. Zerelda Samuel, his mother. Consequently every secret act -- every hitherto unknown incident -- every crime and every motive is herein truthfully disclosed. Truth Is More Interesting Than Fiction." (most of the above title was printed in various upper case sizes.). The story of the publication of this book - - the retraction or denial of permission by Mrs. James, the historical context of the supposed role of Gov. Chittenden in James' assassination -- is well documented in Adams and, much more extensively, in the Snell edition (Swallow, 1970). All three 1882 issue/editions were suppressed. Snell says that only nine copies are known to exist -- presumably that refers to the first edition or first issue -- but that is my interpretation of Snell. Certainly the edition/issue presented here, and the November edition with the added material, are also superlatively rare. Adams says, "The few copies of the original edition in existence are usually in poor condition." Condition: Rebacked with upper 50% of original backstrip laid over. This backstrip is quite worn, but most of the gilt imprinting is readable. Original covers are present with strong gilt title: "Life and Times of Jesse & Frank James" "Revenge". Rear cover with wear. Front cover with moderate wear. Cover corners exposed & portions of board edges exposed. New endpapers match as closely as possible the originals. Title page fore edge chipped (1/4" at one place, but usually just 1/8" or less), but without coming remotely close to the printing. The leaf with pages xv, xvi (last page of Contents, recto, & "Authority To Publish", verso) is in facsimile, tipped in. It is from another rare copy following an extensive search. With the rebacking, etc., the book is in generally very good condition with only an occasional short tear or edge stain to the pages. The binding is skewed/slanted with the front cover forward of the rear cover 5/16". This could not be corrected in the rebind. It is by no means an eyesore, but must be noted. A solid copy, no longer fragile. This book commands cornerstone status in a collection of books on American outlaws. 6-guns 2245, 150 #138, Howes T355A Graff 4196.

[5002018] Warren, Samuel. TEN THOUSAND A - YEAR in three volumes. William Blackwood and Sons, Edinburgh and London. 1841, First Edition. 1st English edition. 3/4 deep tan morocco over calf. Attractive gilt-stamped spines with gilt-stamped red & green labels. Marbled endpapers & similarly marbled edges. 403pp, 391pp, & 429pp. Half-titles present. The Tittlebat Titmouse crest & coat of arms present facing page 301 of vol. 2. No ads in rear. Uniquely designed bookplate of Charles Arthur Wynne Firch on each front paste down. On blank preliminary page of each volume is a circa 1950 small ink signature & place (a prominent lawyer in Seattle, Washington). Very light soiling to covers. A lovely set. "one of the most sensationally popular novels ever published" (British Authors of the 19th Century). "the story of Mr. Tittlebat Titmouse, a draper's assistant, who comes into a large fortune, thanks to documents forged by the lawyers Gammon and Quirk. (his) unexpected elevation to wealth gives rise to absurd consequences." (Oxford Companion to English Literature, 4th ed.). $275.00

[0408144] Washington Pioneer Project (Trotter, F. I., and Loutzenhiser, F. H. & J. R., Editors). TOLD BY THE PIONEERS Tales of Frontier Life As Told by Those Who Remember The Days of the Territory and Early Statehood of Washington. (Secretary of State, Olympia), 1937 - 1938, 1st editions. Three volumes in pictorial cloth. 223, 222, & 232pp. Each volume with frontispiece, but no other illustrations. Indexes. These volumes were, at least in part, a project of the W.P.A.. These collected memoirs surely represent an important documentation of Washington territorial history. A bright, fine set. A half a dozen pages in volume two just barely show a former, tiny dog-ear crease. Scarce set, especially in this condition.

This copy is the Jerome Peltier copy, with a laid-in, three page handwritten letter from Joseph Stremel dated 1/7/54. In this letter Stremel, who "ran a plumbing shop in Hayes City", relates that an old-timer named Hooper told him two Hickok stories, one involving the arrest of a man who had killed seven soldiers, & the other about a trick Hickok used to kill a cowboy who had threatened to kill him. Both incidents happened in or near the building Stremel used as his shop. Laid in also is a magazine article, "The West's Top Triggerman", by J. L. Beardsley. This copy good, soiled with some spots, & with wear on the bottom edge of the back cover. However, it does have the elusive dust jacket: a few tiny chips & a closed tear near the bottom of the backstrip. 6-guns 2425, Howes W545, Rader 3689, Dobie p141.

[SHEL044] Wisconsin). LINCOLN COUNTY, WISCONSIN, PLAT BOOK, 1944 and large folding map of same. M & M Plat Book, Co., Merrill, 1944, First Thus. Folio cloth. The closed size is 13 1/2" x 16 1/4", and the book opens to 27 1/2" wide. There are 44 numbered pages of township maps, town maps & city maps (with the city & town lots defined & numbered, but few owners are named), Properties around lakes & along rivers are allotted. Developments & subdivisions are named. Outside the towns & cities themselves, virtually all parcels of land show the names of the owners. There is also an abundance of block advertising in the book. Where else will you find places like Midget Bar ("The Biggest Little Bar in Northern Wisconsin") and also Tiny's Bar. Both were in Merrill. Yes, and believe it or not, there is a block ad for Rhode's Gesundheit Tavern. Cities & towns include Bay Mills, Bradley, Doering, Courtland, Gleason, Hathaway, Irma, Spirit Falls, & Tripoli. Lakes include Anderson, Buteau, Copper, Knight, Pesobic, Muskellunge, Silver. Rivers include of course the Wisconsin & the Tomahawk. Map legends call attention to Federal & State Highways, County Trunks, Town Roads, Unimproved Roads, Fire Lanes, Rail Roads, and Abandoned railroads. Add to these Town Halls, Schools, Churches & Cemeteries, & even Cheese Factories (I have capitalized all these from the title page for emphasis). This plat book is very, very scarce & is found in only a handful or so of libraries in Wisconsin. Truly an interesting and useful find for anyone who loves N. Wisconsin. Lincoln Co. is in northern Wisconsin and is intersected by U.S. highways 8 & 51. It remains today a beautiful area of forests, fields, farms, lakes, rivers & streams. PLUS: Large, 35" x 36" Lincoln County, Wisconsin, map. Authorized in 1939 & drawn in 1940 by Carl M. Moe. Published in 1940. A Works Progress Administration (W. P. A.) map. Very detailed map showing Town Lines, Township Lines, Private Farm Drives, Federal Highways, State Highways, County Trunks, Town Roads, Unimproved Roads & Trails, Fire Lanes, Rail Roads, Abandoned Rail Roads, Town Halls, Schools, Churches & Cemeteries, and Cheese Factories. The map includes, of course, the cities of Merrill & Tomahawk, and all the smaller towns, such as Gleason, in the county. Rivers & streams include the Wisconsin and Tomahawk Rivers, and the occasional dam. All the lakes are shown. Towers (fire towers?) are indicated (Zenith, Corning, & Lookout Mountain to name a few). Townships are clearly shown, and Ranges & Township numbers are given. There are too many place names to enumerate, but include places like Grandfather Falls, Grandmother Falls, Council Grounds, the Father Menard Monument. There are a number of old logging camps located, along with logging camp roads and logging railroads. The number of cheese factories is remarkable. Condition: very good with only the occasional split at the folds (Will be shipped in the folded state). A remarkable map. Very, very scarce set.

[0505158] Wright, Ed. THE REPRESENTATIVE by OLD COWBOY - ED WRIGHT. Privately Printed, N.p., 1954, BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTE: This book, although the cover is titled as stated, is actually Wright's other book, PARTNERS (published by Vantage Press in 1958). The pictorial drawing on the cover is the same as that on THE REPRESENTATIVE OLD COWBOY ED WRIGHT (published in 1954 in an edition ltd to 500), but the text is, with some variations in the collation of the preliminary pages, the same as PARTNERS. The length is 210pp. (as in PARTNERS). This copy is illustrated with eight pages of photos not found in either THE REPRESENTATIVE or PARTNERS. The drawings by Don Whiston, are, however, as printed in PARTNERS. This copy was stapled and then bound in tan paper covered boards. The fly leaf is a simple copyrighted title page (unlike the title page of PARTNERS), with a reproduced photo of a cow boy on a rearing horse. Over the copyright is printed: "A 135613 A". As noted above, following the title page is a section of eight glossy photos including a "Daily Program Wyoming State Fair Wednesday, September 30, 1914". I'm sure there must be a story behind this somewhat tangled thicket of bibliographical & publishing data. Final comment: note that this title is not quite exactly the same as THE REPRESENTATIVE COWBOY ED WRIGHT of 1954. This copy has an old, somewhat homemade plastic protector taped over the boards (with little or no tape on the boards themselves). Vg.
