Questionnaire

What do you hope to gain from your Careers in Action experience?

Describe your role and responsibilities within your organization and include the reporting structure. Please also specifically state any new roles or responsibilities that you have assumed over the last 12 months that reflect growth in your career.

Careers in Action Application

Provide up to three examples of how you have demonstrated leadership, initiative or strategic decision making in your company or previous place of employment. Please quantify results as it relates to positive impact to the organization.

Briefly describe the current “brand” that you have within your company? (what are you known for – either in the “what” or “how” you perform your duties)

Commitment

The WIT CAREERS IN ACTION Program requires commitment of time and energy. For Leadership Foundations, participants will be involved in six (6) morning events and a final CAPSTONE event. Participation in Executive Readiness involves nine (9) full day sessions, three (3) one-on-one coaching sessions and a final CAPSTONE event.

If, for any reason, participants cannot meet the requirements of this program, there will be no refunds of any fees paid and the ability to graduate from the program may be withdrawn.

If selected, do your job and/or family obligations enable you to commit to full participation in the WIT Careers in Action program?

Yes

No

I have read the above and understand the commitment involved in the WIT Careers in Action Program.
